

ABOUT THE LIBRARY

Since its move to its current home in 1999, The Library at Cedar Creek Lake has grown to become the primary regional resource for many educational, cultural, and intellectual activities, and it has become the most visited non commercial entity in the area.

Considering the explosive increase in the lake area's population, along with its ever changing demographic profile, The Library needs your help to grow and continue to serve the Cedar Creek Lake community.

Each year, The Library at Cedar Creek Lake seeks operating funds from a variety of sources in order to meet its often overwhelming expense requirements. The Endowment Fund is a critical potential resource needing growth to ensure The Library's future.

ENDOWMENT FUND

You can help ensure The Library will be able to continue doing good in our community for many years to come.

What is an Endowment?

An endowment is a fund that cannot be used for general operating expenses. Instead, the money donated is invested, and only the earnings from the fund can be spent to support the many programs of The Library.

What are the advantages to you?

Having contributed to our Endowment Fund can be greatly comforting to donors by providing a gift that will keep on giving well into the future. It offers the assurance The Library will be around for a very long time, and the person(s) honored by your donation will never be forgotten.

Is there a minimum contribution?

There is not a minimum dollar requirement for giving to the Endowment Fund; but with a donation of at least $5,000, you will receive permanent recognition of the person(s) you are honoring on the Endowment Fund Honor Roll located in the main entrance to The Library.

HOW CAN I CONTRIBUTE?

You can contribute by cash, credit card, or by check.

Be sure to specify that your donation is for the Endowment Fund, and on behalf of whom it has been donated.

The Library will provide you with a receipt for your donation, indicating your donation was to a non-profit organization. Since we are a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, your donation may be tax deductible.
