United Methodists, Bishop Respond to School Shooting

By Sherri Gragg . Date Posted: 5/18/2018

The mother of a United Methodist district superintendent was at Santa Fe High School where 10 people, most of them students, were killed on May 18.

The Rev. Alicia Coltzer-Besser said her mother, 76-year-old Margaret Henck, was among those who fled with students to the sound of gunfire. A 17-year-old boy carrying a shotgun and a revolver opened fire at the school. The suspect, who was in custody, also had explosive devices, authorities said.

Henck, who has served as a substitute teacher in Santa Fe High School for many years, was leading her students out of the building while assisting a wheelchair-bound student, when another teacher approached her with the news of the shooter.

"My mom is elderly and has a bad ankle. The teacher took her by the arm and said, 'We are going to run. When I say drop, you drop,'" Coltzer-Besser said. Coltzer-Besser said that her mother dropped to the ground and the other teacher lay his body over hers to shield her. Both teachers ultimately made it to safety, along with their students.

The Galveston County Sheriff's Department reports 10 fatalities, nine of whom were students. Two law enforcement officers are among the injured. Other United Methodists responded quickly, with a local church announcing it would open to offer the community a place to pray on May 19. Bishop Scott Jones of the Texas Conference issued a statement calling the shooting "a cruel and senseless act of violence." "I grieve, pray and weep with the families of the victims at Santa Fe High School and others involved," Jones said.

Authorities have warned the public to exercise extreme caution, as multiple explosive devices — including pipe bombs and pressure cooker IEDs — have been found both on and off the school campus. Citizens are urged to report any "suspicious items" to law enforcement immediately.

The Rev. Yohan Baek, pastor of Aldersgate United Methodist Church in Santa Fe, opened the church sanctuary Saturday morning, May 19, between 9 a.m. and noon, to provide the community with a place to pray and grieve. The Rev. Vincent Harris, South District superintendent, will join Baek to meet with families and learn how The United Methodist Church can best help. Coltzer-Besser is deeply grateful for her mother's well-being, but the family and entire community have taken their first steps on a journey dark with grief. "This is a small community," Coltzer-Besser said, "Everyone will know someone who was lost. They will know the shooter ..."

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH—ORANGE'S VISION ROOTED IN CHRIST ... BRANCHING OUT IN FAITH ... DISCIPLES GROWING DISCIPLES

At First UMC-Orange, we grow Disciples who grow Disciples! It is just that simple! It's what we do!

From revival and renewed spirit through worship, we move people from the sanctuary to the community delivering God's message of hope and grace through Jesus Christ. Whenever and wherever we come together, we do so in His name, modeling His Grace and sharing His Word.

For saints and seekers; for individuals and families; for those more or less fortunate; for young and old alike...The good news is for all people. We are the voices and the hands branching out in Faith to encourage and support people. We provide worship, programs, and activities for families and individuals that will help you take God's word and apply it to your circumstances so He can change your life in ways you knew not possible.

Through Christ, we will facilitate the transformation of individuals into His People and our community into His community! At First UMC-Orange, we grow disciples who grow disciples! It is just that simple! It's what we do!

June Random Acts of Kindness

A couple of these are not so random – but much needed:

1. Buy a BibleStory book from the Dollar General - will be placed in the lunches for kids this summer.
2. Bake cookies for the kids' lunches
3. Smile and say hello to a stranger – especially when standing in line at the grocery store
4. Invite a friend to VBS and STAY to help
5. PRAY for the Kids' lunch program and Vacation Bible School as we reach out to the children in our community

GROWING STRONGER DISCIPLES

We are overviewing each of the four levels of growth into becoming a stronger Christian Disciple allowing each of us to reflect and grow in our Christian maturity.

Growing in Christ

"I believe in Jesus and I am working on what it means to get to know Him."

Those Growing in Christ are moving from an intellectual acceptance of Christ to a relationship characterized by interaction and intimacy—it is the most dramatic shift on the spiritual continuum. It is within this movement that faith travels from the head to the heart; where the word personal begins to describe how people relate to Jesus in their daily lives. No longer abstract or distant, Christ becomes, instead, a real person—someone they depend upon for guidance, wisdom and encouragement in the course of everyday events.

Those Growing in Christ are developing a routine of personal spiritual practices that make space and time for a growing intimacy with Christ. These newest-to-the-faith believers are typically huge fans of churches that foster spiritual growth. A key characteristic of those in this segment is that they represent the largest segment on the spiritual continuum—38 to 50 % of church membership. (MOVE by Greg Hawkins, pp. 50-53.)

Those in the Growing in Christ segment are indeed making progress, moving from an acknowledgement of God that was largely irrelevant to their daily lives to a personal relationship with him that directly impacts their everyday experiences.

1. Believe in a personal God—I believe that God is actively involved in my life.
2. Praying to seek guidance daily
3. Reading and Reflecting on Scripture frequently—beginning to journal your thoughts
4. Having six or more meaningful spiritual conversations with non-Christians in a year
5. Tithing (giving ten percent or more to the church)
6. Servanthood through church activities—both in the church and the community
7. Attendance in Small Groups
8. Ready for great spiritual advances and impact in the church

(from MOVE by Greg Hawkins, pp. 48-64.)

Reminder: Individual spiritual growth is not linear or predictable. Each individual will follow a unique growth pathway. Growing and moving forward
