Dear Brethren,

Greetings once again. Here are some pictures from the Hreatska, Tzinteni areas where two of our churches are near the border of Romania. We were unable to fly there in September as hoped but the Baptismal service for Victor and Emilia was held at Bro. Vasile's church in Tzinteni with Pastor Danic baptising. The smaller buiding is the church house in Hreastka where we started that church in 2006 and where they got saved earlier this year. We go door to door every year at Christmas, caroling and passing out scripture calendars and after six years of caroling at their house they started attending services. Four years later they got saved! The baptismal service went well. Lost family members came and heard the Gospel. Stasic, who got saved this year in Tzinteni, also was baptized. His mother and father got saved 6 years ago. They were members of the False Jehovah Witness Kingdom Hall in the area. Their lost relatives were there for Stasic's baptism. Please pray that more will be saved out of that false system. Through the visitors, two new villages have opened up giving us the opportunity to preach the Gospel there in the days ahead. Thank you for praying with us!

From our bible students in the 1990's, we now have Valenten M. and his family with permanent residence in Portugal, Vitali and his family, Valenteen R. and his family, Georgy and his family with permanent residence in Italy and Sasha and his family with permanent residence in France. We have 5 men working and witnessing in France traveling back and forth, two working in Moscow and one in Romania. Thirty percent of our church members in Ukraine now have dual citizenship with Ukrainian and Romanian passports. Georgy and Valenteen are leaders in their church. We have invitations to preach in each of these areas. Please pray with us. We hope to return to Ukraine in January.

Book Corner: A supporting Pastor recently asked me to write another Book Corner. Here's one.. "Open Windows, The Church and Revival" By James A. Stewart "Here is a book filled with instructions that have been hammered out on the anvil of experience" W.N. Also, visit James A. Dickson's Books Glasgow website. Scroll, select catalogue #340. Download. I have received Mr. Dickson's catalogues for 30 years. This one is a Gold mine of info. Book #243 James Fraser of Brea, "Meditations on Several Subjects, Particularly Trusting upon God, Hungring and Thirsting after Christ, The Powers, Evil and Vileness of Sin, The Combat Betwixt the Flesh and the Spirit, With Several Other Subjects". How's that for subject matter! This 1721 copy cost about $380. It can be found for free at: <http://www.prdl.org> We haven't read it yet, just found it! Happy reading!

Happy In The Work,
