Dear Pastor and Church,

What an amazing couple of months we have had here in Cornwall. Last March, Andrea led a lady to the Lord in a Bible Study and after completing a Bible study on baptism and the church, Ruth was baptized in August. We actually had to wait a month or so as she wanted to be baptized in the ocean and we had to wait for a Sunday with good weather and calm seas. Liskeard Baptist Church continued to have numerous visitors and oddly for us, complete families. Since the beginning of the year, we have had three families start attending as well as a few others. In our time here we have previously had very few complete families attend. An added bonus is people are being active in the church and volunteering to help with duties. Given the number of people attending and our desire to visit or at least touch base with each of them after the service, it is a blessing to not have to scurry about doing things and instead focus on the people.

We are still looking and still asking for prayer concerning a building. In the meantime, we have come up with a temporary solution for the overcrowding situation with the children. We have purchased an older travel trailer and are in the process of ripping the insides out of it. We will put benches inside of it and....voila!....instant Sunday school room. This will be for the boys' class and they are excited to have their own hideaway.

October 1st marked our 20th anniversary on the field here in England. 20 years sounds so long but it went so fast. It is only because of the faithfulness and prayers of churches like yours that allow us to remain on the field. We do not take lightly the sacrifices people make to give to missions. It is our prayer that God would give us another 20 years of ministry here. It is our hope that we might know what we are doing by then.

If we could ask you to pray about these things:

- Church building for Liskeard Baptist Church
- Salvation of a number of lost folks regularly attending
- The upcoming Missionary Retreat in Manchester we host

As always, we pray Gods richest blessing upon you and want you to know how grateful we are for you.
