The Pearceys - Missionaries to NYC

Dear Citizens of the Heavenly Kingdom,

Greetings to all and Happy Independence Day! I hope this letter finds you full of God's grace and truth, ministering with joy. How it is true that the "harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few."

Thank you for your prayers. God continues to show Himself. I have recently reconnected with at least a few young people to whom I ministered to our first term here. Please pray for Donovan to finally see and receive Jesus as Lord and Saviour. Since he has joined the army, he has begun to humble himself and seek the Lord. Through a believer named Bobby who has started coming to some of our church services, I was able to meet with a young couple. The young lady (his niece) trusted Christ, and the young man rededicated himself to the Lord. Since then, they have been pushing Bobby to come more and bring them to church services! I also started discipleship with the young couple which has spilled over into becoming Bible studies in their home with her mother and step-father. But wow, it is a battle! Please pray for Bobby and his wife to catch fire from the Lord and find strength and commitment because their role is vital. I met another couple (this time in NJ) who daily begged for hotel money for 6 months since their apartment burned down. Just like I had taught just a few days before about Peter and John at the Gate Beautiful, I told them, "I do not have enough money to give, but what I do know this printing place I saw last week with a "now hiring" sign - I will take you there if you want." It was amazing, because when I took them, the printing company interviewed them that day and offered them the jobs! The couple knew it was of God. Since then, I was able to continue helping them move forward for a while. I pray they are pursuing God with commitment, and that I can reconnect soon.

So glad my parents were able to visit us!

Our church had to relocate to another school for the months of July and August. But I know the Lord is in control, and that He will use this for His glory, despite the difficulties that come along with being on the move. Two of our youth went on a missions trip to Costa Rica! A missions team from Leagueville Baptist will be here soon, and 2 other teams plan to do a weekend missions trip in August. Please pray for these missions and my outreach as well. On behalf of my wonderful family, thank you for your support, and prayers, and encouraging fellowship in Christ Jesus!

In Christ,
The Pearceys
